General Eligibility Criteria

Rules for all Scholarships

Scholarships & Financial Aid

- Chairman's Scholarship
- College Scholarship
- Honor Scholarship
- Front-liners Scholarship
- Student Relatives Scholarship
- Social Responsibility Scholarship
- Employees Scholarship
- Strategic Partnerships Scholarship
- Financial Aid

General Eligibility Criteria

- A scholarship application must be submitted by the student to the Student Scholarships & Financial Aid Office (SSFAO) before any award can be made (except in specific cases where noted below).
- A student can apply for several scholarship programs, but he/she will be granted only one scholarship (whichever is higher value).
- New intake students will be eligible for the approved scholarship discount for the first 2 semesters provided they register in 12 credit hours per semester. The credit requirement is waived in this period for students with conditional admission due language proficiency; after this period they must comply with the scholarship maintenance rules.
- A student holding an existing scholarship granted under previous College policies may continue to hold it, subject to continued fulfillment of the scholarship terms and requirements stated in that policy.

Rules for all Scholarships

- Scholarships discounts do not apply to remedial/bridging courses.
- Scholarships (including free seats) apply to tuition fees only and do not cover other payments (e.g. administrative fees, book fees, lab fees, incomplete exam fees, repeat final fees, etc.).
- Scholarships and tuition fee reductions are non-transferrable.
- If a student withdraws from classes during a semester without prior approval, this may result in the cancellation of the scholarship.
- If a student breaches the Code of Conduct or Academic Integrity Policy, he/she will forfeit any approved scholarship for the remaining period of study at the College.
- If a student provides false documents to obtain a scholarship, he/she will forfeit any approved scholarship and will not be eligible for any scholarship for the duration of his/her study.
- If a student suspends study for two consecutive semesters or more without a proper application, he/she will forfeit any approved scholarship (but may apply for a new scholarship on subsequent registration).
- If a student drops out of the College for a reason that is not considered to be force majeure, he/she is liable to pay the full (non-discounted) course fees of the final semester (and if the final semester is a summer semester, then also for the preceding regular semester).
